

We can help you

Looking for residential care can be an emotional, time consuming and stressful process.

Having the support and assistance of an independent health care professional can reduce your stress and enable you access to the very best facilities available.

Millennium Aged Care has been providing families with expert placement advice and assistance since 1999.

We are staffed by a team of experienced registered nurses who will support and guide you through the placement, with knowledge and understanding, to help you find a facility that meets your requirements.

You can be confident with Millennium that all options have been explored and that you have the very best outcome possible.

- Understand the Aged Care system, the costs and processes involved in securing accommodation
- Understand your options and support you to make decisions regarding care
- Identify facilities that meet your specific requirements

Services Include:

- Family meetings to discuss your situation with a professional
- Access to our facility data base on over 1000 aged care facilities including details on specific facility features and client feedback
- Arranging prompt appointments to inspect homes
- Escorting and transport to appointments
- Assistance with the completion and submission of application forms and Centrelink Asset Assessment Forms
- Advocating for your priority at facilities
- Advising you of current vacancies to consider

Residential Services

Moving into an Aged Care facility can be a challenging time for the resident, their family and loved ones.

Having additional support at this time, from a caring professional who understands your situation, can make all the difference and help ease the transition to residential care for all concerned.

Our consultants can provide ongoing residential support for as little as $55 per week.

Services Include:

- Attendance at the residential facility on the day of transfer
- Regular visits to provide support and advocacy to the client and family
- Liaising with the facility on the client and family's behalf
- Engaging allied health support
- Organising outings and much more
